

Publication Etics

The TOBNA journal for Academic scientific studies Research is committed to publishing all scientific contributions in all disciplines relating to the fields of legal and political science. The journal contains original articles which reflect the latest research and developments in aspects Journal areas. In doing so it provides an academic platform for researchers to contribute to the development of this field of knowledge in the principles of publication ethics and the prevention of harmful practices, and to fulfill the responsibilities assigned to each party.

1-The Editorial Board :

- The editorial board of the journal is responsible for the publication and printing decision in accordance with the journal's policy and compliance with legal controls and publication ethics, in particular, with regard to copyright and citations from scientific works presented to the journal.*
- The Editorial board ensures the selection of articles for evaluation, supports them and the anonymity of applicants and evaluators.*
- The journal has the right to make certain necessary modifications to the material presented for publication, without prejudice to the content, and in accordance with the conditions and rules of publication specific to the journal, without reference to the authors.*
- The Editorial Board oversees the disposition of papers accepted for publication.*

- The Editorial Board of the journal declines all responsibility in the event of infringement of intellectual property rights.
- The content of published articles reflects the opinions of their authors only, and does not engage the journal of any responsibility.
- The journal is entitled to republish articles and research accepted separately or in a group of other scientific contributions in their original language or translated into another language, in electronic or paper form.
- Two articles by the same author cannot be published in two consecutive issues.
- The Editorial Committee establishes a blacklist of the authors of plagiarism, falsification and any other form of breach of ethical and deontological rules.

2-Reviewer (Expert):

- The scientific committee validates the articles proposed for publication, after checking the process of their evaluations.
- - The Reviewer (Expert) contributes to publication decision making by helping the author to improve and correct his article.
- - The Reviewer (Expert) responds promptly to the assessment of articles sent to him within the set deadlines.
- - The need to maintain confidentiality in arbitration of articles and not to disclose or discuss content with any party without permission from the Editor in chief.
- Reviewer (Expert) must oppose objectivity in his examination and evaluation of articles addressed to him, on the basis of arguments and objective and methodological evidence, far from his personal point of view.

- The Editorial Board with draws the evaluation of the article from all Reviewer in the event of non-compliance with its commitments. The article will be assigned to another Reviewer.

3-The Author :

- The author undertakes to demonstrate objectivity in the proposal, to avoid slander, insults and any kind of attack on religions or cultures, and to respect intellectual property rights. La recherche soumise ne doit pas être extraite d'un livre publié ou une thèse de graduation soutenue.

- The author agrees to guarantee that his research is authentic, has never been published and will never be published elsewhere. In the event that it is accepted for publication, the printing and publication rights will be transferred to the journal.

- The authors of the articles receive a certificate of publication, and do not pay any financial reward for research and published articles.

- The author of the article agrees to mention the references appropriately, to prove the direct and indirect citations according to the conditions and rules contained in the template of the journal.

- The author remains solely responsible for the content of his article even after its publication in the journal.

