Afak for sciences

International Journal of Scientific, Linguistic, Literary, Cultural, and Educational Research Published at the University of Djelfa

Focus and Scope

A peer-reviewed scholarly international scientific journal published at the University of Djelfa focuses on linguistic, literary, cultural, and educational topics. Afak publishes legal, political, Sharia, linguistic, literary research and studies. Also, it issues human, social, educational (curricula and methods of teaching, pedagogy, educational administration) and economic studies. The journal comments on laws and judicial rulings, and it edits manuscripts. The journal publishes original literary and scientific studies and research in all aforementioned disciplines, written in English ; French.

The submitted research and studies for publication are presented to an arbitration committee composed of specialists chosen in complete confidentiality, in order to demonstrate the extent of their originality, seriousness, value of their results, integrity of their presentation, and suitability for publication. The researcher must commit to making modifications in accordance with the observations made by the arbitrators.

Every researcher undertakes not to publish his research in any other journal without prior permission from the editorial board. When the research is accepted for publication, all ownership rights related to the research are transferred to the journal.

Terms and conditions

- The research and studies published in Afak express the opinion of their authors only, and do not necessarily express the opinion of the journal.*
- It is not permitted to print, copy, or republish the journal or part of the research published in it except with written permission from the journal director.*
- Any violation bears responsibility for judicial prosecution.*
